01 Terms and Conditions

These are the terms and conditions that MarbleArt abides by, presented in simple English. If you have any queries, please feel free to contact us.

02 Payment and Method

We offer several payment options, including Bank Transfer, PayPal, and Secure Online Payment through credit or debit card, with a link provided via SMS or email. A minimum first payment of 30% is required to initiate the order. Before shipping, a minimum second payment of 40% is necessary. Upon receiving the order and after examining for breakage and defects, the final payment of 30% is required.

03 Transportation

Buyers are responsible for transportation and shipping costs. We'll provide a list of trusted carriers, and the buyer can choose the final carrier. For in-person delivery, a delivery fee will be proposed before personally delivering the order.

04 Breakage, Defects and Refunds.

Upon reception of the order, if any breakage or defects are noticed, MarbleArt will offer a full reimbursement amounting to the value lost when provided with legitimate photographic proof. MarbleArt can also offer replacement statue(s) amounting to the value lost. Broken and defective items must be disposed of and not sold.

05 Materials

Our statues are crafted from powdered marble and bonding agents, creating decorative items unsuitable for consumption. MarbleArt bronze statues are coated with a bronze powder boasting over 99% purity. Notably, our statues are solid, devoid of any hollow spaces or concealed weights.

06 Copyrights

Statues at MarbleArt fall under one of three copyright situations, either owned outright by MarbleArt, reproduction rights obtained, or significant alterations rendering it a new piece free of copyright.

07 Contract and Cancellation

Upon placing an order and completing the initial payment, MarbleArt initiates the manufacturing process. In the event of a cancellation during manufacturing, you will be invoiced for the portion of the order already completed, considering that time and resources have been invested in its production. You will then have the option to receive the completed portion.
